ST. ANTON, Austria (AP) — An American woman skier once employed in Washington and three Britons and two Germans were killed today in a roaring avalanche in this Alpine winter resort. The dead American was Janet Lester Neville, 27, of West Chester, Pa.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Athelstan Neville of Seeds Rocks Farm. Her father is a copywriter for a Philadelphia advertising firm. She was graduated from Smith College in 1950, and worked for a year and a half for the Central Information Agency at Washington. Between 1952 and 1954 she was a civilian employee of the United States Army in Munich.
